About Omidvar's English 1101

ENGL 1101 is a writing course, and in it, we'll be writing nearly every day. You'll learn not only how to write for college, but also how to express yourself better on paper and how to use writing to help you think well.

Learning Outcomes:

- Demonstrate effective use of a range of rhetorical strategies in composing for different audiences, purposes, and contexts.
- Draft, revise, and edit at a level of proficiency appropriate for a college-level writer.
- Work effectively with source material in support of the main point of an essay.
- Produce extemporaneous in-class writing at a level of proficiency appropriate for a college-level writer.

Grades (minimum requirements for each grade)

The portfolio grade and four of the other five areas must be up to standard)

	Portfolios	Attendance	Quizzes	Missed Assignments	Regents'	Final
A	✓+ on at least two, ✓ on all	90%	85%	Three or fewer	2+	B
B	✓+ on at least one, ✓ on all	85%	75%	Six or fewer	2	C
C	No portfolio below a ✓	80%	65%	Nine or fewer	2-	D
D	At least one portfolio a ✓	75%	55%	Twelve or fewer	1+	D

You must make a C or better in English 1101 before you can take English 1102.

Textbooks: Wendy Bishop The Subject Is Writing 4th ed. & Ann Raimes The Open Handbook

Attendance is required. You could fail if you miss more than 75% of our classes. More than half a class period missed counts as an absence, as do 3 lates. A missed conference counts as two absences. Notify me early if you are faced with an insurmountable attendance problem.

Assignments are due on time whether or not you were in class the day before. If you are absent the day an assignment is due, you can receive credit for it by turning in the completed assignment at the beginning of the next class that you attend.

Late Assignments will receive a late mark. Ask by the day before if you need an extension.

Pop Quizzes are frequently given on the readings. Usually you may not make up a missed quiz. I will drop your two lowest quiz grades.

Website: Our Composition program Website is at <http://www.spsu.edu/htc/Composition>. There, you can find out more about the Regents' Test and read essays by our past essay contest winners, among other things.

The ATTIC, in J-210, is a great place to get help while working on your papers. It's open M-F from 9:00 to 2:00 and again from 5:00 to 8:30. If you receive a ✓- on any portfolio, I'll require you to go there for some postmortem work. Why not drop in earlier and avoid the ✓-?

Plagiarism and other forms of academic dishonesty will result in failure of the course. The most common form of plagiarism today is cutting and pasting off the Internet. See the SPSU Catalog.

The Regents' Test is something you'll have to take this term and every term until you pass both the reading and writing sections. You should already be automatically signed up for a RGTT test-taking section. Change now to a different section if the one you've been assigned to is at an awkward time.

Students with Disabilities who believe that they may need accommodations in this class should contact the counselor working with disabilities at (678) 915-7226 right away to ensure that they get the help they need quickly.

MLA Paper Form: Your final-draft layouts should look like this:
